

INDEX

Book Reviews

16, 48, 125-126, 131-132, 150, 156, 159-160, 171-172, 183-184, 188, 190, 191-192, 197-199

Botany

Botanical report for 1999: flowering plants and ferns, 26-29; Recovery by aquatic vegetation in a Wolds headstream subsequent to the 1988-1992 drought, 133-138; Mapping Dryopteris submontana to the metre: evidence and implications for fractal distributions, 139-150; Distribution of Large-leaved Lime on the Magnesian Limestone of South Yorkshire

Bryology

Bryophytes and lichens of colliery spoil heaps in Yorkshire, 151-156

Chiroptera

Tawny owl seen taking a flying bat in Bradford, 191

Diptera

Fungus-gnats found new to Yorkshire in 2001, 189-190; Entomological report: Diptera (Tipuloidea and Empidoidea), 193-196

Ecology

Seasonal variations in nutrient levels in Bemersyde Moss, 17-26; Composition and distribution of mixed hedges in East Yorkshire, 113-125; Recovery by aquatic vegetation in a Wolds headstream subsequent to the 1988-1992 drought, 127-131; Mapping Dryopteris submontana to the metre: evidence and implications for fractal distributions, 133-138

Hymenoptera

Wasps and bees of the upland sites of Brimham Rocks, Caydale, Gundale and Seckar Moor with Woolley Edge Quarry, 3-15; Recorder's seventh report of the Aculeate Hymenoptera in Watsonian Yorkshire, 15-16; Collyrinae of Yorkshire, 185-187

Lepidoptera

A century and a half of change in the butterfly fauna of the Huddersfield area, 49-112

Lichenology

Bryophytes and lichens of colliery spoil heaps in Yorkshire, 151-156; Lichen herbarium at Liverpool Museum, 157-159; Lichen flora of County Durham: supplement 1, 173-183

Ornithology

Feral geese in the Harrogate area in the year 2000, 161-171; Tawny owl seen taking a flying bat in Bradford, 191

Yorkshire Naturalists' Union

YNU excursions in 1999, 30-48; Proceedings (in part) of the YNU Conference, Harrogate 2000, 113-150